When you find difficulty in balancing the equation in the balancing chemical equations worksheet, you can miss it with a fraction of  $\frac{1}{2}$  and that will easily balance the equation. But the problem is that you cannot have a fraction for the co-efficient, this is why doubling all coefficients will help you balance the equation.

5 Steps for Balancing Chemical Equations

Solve this system of equations to get the numeric value for all the coefficients. Since there are more variables than equations, there are multiple solutions. You must find the one where every variable is in its smallest, non-fractional form. To quickly do this, take one variable and assign a value to it. Let's make  $a=1$ .
