Verse 5. - (3) The antagonism between light and darkness. The highest manifestation and proof of the following statement will be found in that great entrance of the Eternal Logos into human life which will shed the most complete ray of Divine light upon men; but before that great event, during its occurrence, and ever since, i.e. throughout all times and nations, the light shineth in the darkness.

But somehow, Darkness didn't quite fully click with me. I've asked myself repeatedly why, if I loved pretty much everything about it, I can't just start throwing happy neurons at it like Mardi Gras beads. I think that the answer lies in the pacing. I feel like too many parts of this book got dragged down in speculation about what is ...
