Fallen Angels is the 37th studio album by Bob Dylan, released by Columbia Records on May 20, 2016. The album consists of cover versions of twelve classic American songs chosen by Dylan from a diverse array of writers such as Johnny Mercer, Harold Arlen, Sammy Cahn and Carolyn Leigh. Much like the album's predecessor, Shadows in the Night, every song on the album, except for "Skylark", was once recorded by Frank Sinatra. The album has received generally favorable reviews from critics, with partic

I had the luck to hear a recent Bob Dylan concert and had a bit of an epiphany in regard to Bob Dylan music and where Fallen Angels fits in. Dylan is currently touring doing a few songs from Fallen Angels and mostly songs from albums he has done post 2000. In this context the new songs made total sense and really helped me appreciate the new album.
